MICHAEL W. TUCKER
MAYOR

PRESS RELEASE

Sen. George Maziarz, District Attorney Matthew Murphy and Mayor Michael Tucker are holding a press conference at the City of Lockport Council Chambers on Thursday, December 9, 2004 at 12:00 -p.m. to announce the continuation of the Community Prosecution Grant. Through this grant the City has been able to acquire the services of Mark Sanders as a Community Policing Aid and the County has been able to use the services of Earl Keyes as a Community Prosecutor. Mayor Michael W. Tucker said “Mark Sanders has been an invaluable asset to the City of Lockport”. As Matthew Murphy states “This is a needed service in the City of Lockport which improves the quality of life”. “The safety of our communities is always a paramount concern for governments and citizens alike,” said Senator George D. Maziarz (R-C, North Tonawanda). “This grant funding will allow us to continue grassroots in Lockport to police our neighborhoods and prosecute criminals. This is an effective way of making our community safer.”
